

How to do research in acute care

Emergency Department, Intensive Care Unit and Anaesthesia Research

Friday, 20th March 2015

Vernon Collins Theatre, HELP Centre, Level 1 West, The Royal Children's Hospital

8.30–8.50 Registration

8.50–9.00 Introduction and welcome
A/Prof Franz Babl

9.00–10.30 Perfecting your protocol

Chair: A/Prof Franz Babl

- Formulating the research question
A/Prof Andrew Davidson
- Study design
Dr Katherine Lee
- Protocol development
Prof Fiona Newell

10.30–10.50 Morning tea

10.50–12.20 Collecting data, managing the team, data analysis

Chair: A/Prof Andrew Davidson

- Data collection and management
Ms Suzanna Vidmar
- Study management
Ms Cate Wilson
- Analysis 101 and presenting your data
A/Prof Franz Babl

12.30–1.15 Key note speaker presentation
Prof. Frank Shann

“Changing clinical practice through research”
(Ella Latham Theatre)

1.15–2.00 Lunch

2.00–3.30 Concurrent workshops

WORKSHOP 1: Ethics, informed consent and good clinical practice
Fiona Williams and Cate Wilson (Vernon Collins)

WORKSHOP 2: Advanced research practice—navigating the Australasian grant scene and collaborations
Ed Oakley and Melissa Wake (CLS 1.053)

WORKSHOP 3: Critical analysis and evaluation of studies
Katherine Lee and Warwick Butt (SR 1.036)

3.30–3.45 Afternoon tea

3.45–4.15 Debate

“Informed consent is meaningless in acute care— it shouldn't be attempted”

Pro: Sarah Bascomb, Warwick Butt, Allison Lamb

Con: Ed Oakley, Mike O'Brien, Phoebe Macleod

Adjudicator: A/Prof Franz Babl

4.15–4.45 Careers in research

Chair: A/Prof Warwick Butt

Prof Fiona Newell, Ms Sharon O'Brien, Dr Sarah McNabb

4.45–5.00 Closing remarks
A/Prof Warwick Butt